

Dear Classmates,

Shocked, petrified, and overwhelmed, I have pleasure to announce a piece of frightening but terribly good news of Halloween:

Wong Yin Yan has overtaken everybody else to be the first grandparent of the Class of 1974! Her daughter gave birth to Sophia on October 31, 2006. The lovely angel weighed 8 lb at birth and is healthy and strong.

I blame Yin Yan for reminding us of our age but can't help to rejoice on the good news! Please extend our heartfelt congratulations and blessings to Jake and Teacher Chiu. If you wish to send in your blessings to the prettiest grandma on earth, you can write to Yin Yan at rebyyc@yahoo.com.

Are we really that old? Whew
