Honestly, we were not quite up to the Pui Ching Spirit because we were just having too much fun of our own. All night long, we hardly noticed what was happening on the stage. If you looked for Red Blue Spirit that night, you just had to go to some other tables.

If you take a closer look at the pictures, you will see that each of us was holding a gold medal and a silver medal. Our invincible teams had ruthlessly massacred all our opponents and won the gold medal in basketball and silver medal in soccer. We in fact also remained unbeaten in soccer but lost the gold medal to the other team only by counting the number of field goals. I should add that in one game we had only four players on our side playing against five players on the other side. Hats off to our indomitable teams !

Just before the dinner was over, Tiger, Lam Wai Leung, Li Hiu Chuen, Yung Yan Chi, Chan Kim Ming, Kong Yeuk Pun, Chung Lai Fun, Au Chun Sang, Lee Jee Yin, and Chan Chi Man went to my office to sort the coronation photos.

We first had to argue how to sort all these pictures. Of course the one who has the loudest voice usually gets what he wants, even though it does not necessarily mean he is right. Anyway, we decided to lay all the pictures on the conference table and let each of us pick the pictures. If you have been to a buffet dinner you will know how chaotic it can be. I had a few good elbows from Tiger, and of course I returned him with some kicks.

The pictures have all been sorted out, "sort of." If you find some of your favorite pictures missing, blame yourself for not being with us that night. Some of the classmates have already got the pictures. We plan to distribute the rest to the other classmates in a function to be held in July. If you want to have the pictures before that, you can give me a call.
