

Wong Man Moon's Visit to Washington D.C.

Kin Chun

After all these years, I finally can report the visit of a fellow class-of-74er (Tim Wong Man-Moon) to Maryland. It was a short but very happy reunion. We have not seen each other for more than 30 years.

It almost did not happen until Tim was offered at the last minute to exchange seats to another flight back to Oakland due to overbooking. We spent the next morning together and had a very brief tour of Washington D.C., Maryland, and Virginia. Here is a picture we took at the restaurant.
